Bow Down*

Husky football is becoming the hottest ticket in town once again thanks to a stellar 2016 season and run at the National Championship. This exclusive Dawg package includes two tickets to the Fresno State game on Saturday, September 16th and doesn't stop there. You will head down to the field with VIP pre-game sideline passes to watch the players warm up, run plays and huddle with the coaches before kickoff. Also included is a signed football as well as a guided tour of the Husky football facilities for up to 8 people (to be scheduled in the month of May). You'll have access to areas only available to players and coaches – any Washington football fan's dream! Valued at: priceless.

Sneak Peek into the Exclusive World of Betz Family Winery

Any passionate connoisseur of local wine knows that the Betz Family Winery has produced some of Washington's top-rated wines from its Woodinville cellar. Bob Betz is a superb winemaker, and known as a mentor among Washington winemakers. And while sampling their Bordeaux-styled releases can leave a significant dent in your wallet, getting inside the winery is close to impossible. They open their doors only a few times a year, but owners Steve and Bridgit Griessel will personally give you and 7 other guests a private tour and tasting at their winery. While you sample their award-winning wines and explore the barrel room, you'll learn how they craft these compelling wines which showcase Washington State as a distinguished wine region of the world. The winning bidder will also be placed directly on-to their member list which is currently closed with a wait list, as well as take home a 1.5L magnum. Date to be mutually agreed upon by the winner and owners; expiration date: February 11th, 2018. Valued at $915.

Walla Walla Weekend
